

KUALA LUMPUR, MALAYSIA

Brand New Identity

Formerly the iconic Hotel Equatorial, EQ opened earlier this year with 440 luxurious guest rooms and suites, offering spectacular views of the surrounding city from the new 52-storey Equatorial Plaza. EQ's quality food and beverage offerings bring together old favourites and new additions: all-day dining Nipah, fine Japanese cuisine at Kampachi, contemporary café Étolle, wines and light bites at Bottega Lounge, as well as European fine dining at Sabayon, and cocktail lounge Blue, both on the 51st floor. The hotel boasts over 2,300 square metres of space in a variety of halls for hosting events, including the breathtaking two-tier Diamond Ballroom. Unwind in EQ's aesthetically appealing recreational facilities such as the swimming pool, Sanctum Fitness centre and Sanctum Spa. Guests staying in the suites can also enjoy exclusive access to the 47th floor Equator Club.

PHUKET, THAILAND

Simple & Fun

One of Phuket's newest hotels, OZO Phuket is strategically located within walking distance of Kata Beach and various attractions. Designed with simplicity and comfort in mind, the hotel offers 255 guest rooms and suites, many of which are spacious enough to cater to families of four. Children can play in the Splash activity pool with its waterslide and wet play area, while adults unwind in the main pool. Dine in at EAT restaurant, snack at the Pool Bar or explore the colourful eateries that the nearby town has to offer. Widely known as one of the island's best surf beaches and a hotspot for beach activities, Kata Beach also has a night market, various shops and other attractions within walking distance.
