明月珍宝
Celestial Treasures 2022

15 JULY - 12 SEPTEMBER 2022

According to the legend of the jade rabbit, the Emperor of Heaven once tested the virtues of a fox, monkey and rabbit. Deeply moved by the self-sacrificing actions of the rabbit, the Emperor sent it to the moon where it became an immortal jade rabbit. The Jade Rabbit is said to reside in the Moon Palace accompanying Goddess Chang'E where it pounds the elixir of life for those living in heaven. It is believed that an outline of the Jade Rabbit pounding with a pestle can be seen when looking up at the moon.

The harvest is believed to be tied to the moon cycle.

Traditionally,
the Mid-Autumn Festival was when ancient Chinese emperors
would pray
for a bountiful harvest,
as it is when the moon
is at its brightest
and fullest.
