FOR IMMEDIATE DISTRIBUTION

SPRING INTO EASTER

KUALA LUMPUR, 19 March 2026 – Easter springs forth at EQ with new reasons to celebrate and gather over the first weekend of April. Observed around the world as a season of joyous renewal, Easter is often marked by meals shared with family and close friends. At EQ, the occasion is feted through expansive menus, luxuriously curated personalised dining, cheerful activities for younger guests and a warm, welcoming atmosphere across the hotel's dining venues. Whether enjoying a leisurely lunch overlooking the city skyline or a lively buffet with family-friendly entertainment, the hotel's Easter offerings cater to every kind of gathering.

Sabayon

On Easter Sunday, the award-winning Sabayon presents a semi-buffet lunch set on Level 51, offering sweeping views of Kuala Lumpur. The experience begins with starters and a comforting mushroom soup served to the table, followed by buffet selections and live carving stations. Highlights include roast lamb, roasted chicken and salmon, accompanied by seasonal sides. The meal concludes with an indulgent dessert buffet, creating a refined yet convivial setting for families and friends to celebrate. The Easter semi-buffet lunch is priced at RM288+ per adult and RM88+ per child (6 – 12 years).

Nipah

At Nipah, the hotel's much lauded all-day dining restaurant, the Easter buffet lunch offers a lively spread of festive dishes prepared across multiple stations. Guests can enjoy a festive carvery alongside traditional hot cross buns and Easter breads. The dessert selection includes pralines, macarons and a flowing chocolate fountain, offering a variety of sweet indulgences. Younger guests are also part of the celebration, with activities such as an Easter egg hunt and colouring contest adding to the lively atmosphere. The buffet is priced at RM198+ per adult and RM88+ per child (6 – 12 years).

Étoile

For a more relaxed, barbecue-style celebration, Étoile presents an Easter buffet with a generous selection of grilled and roasted favourites. The spread includes a salad and cheese bar, roasted leg of lamb from the carving station, pasta selections, and Australian beef striploin prepared fresh. A colourful dessert table completes the experience, while families can look forward to a dedicated children's corner, Easter egg hunt and appearances by the Easter Bunny. The buffet is priced at RM148+ per adult and RM74+ per child (6 – 12 years).

Sanctum Spa

Guests seeking a moment of respite over the Easter weekend can retreat to Sanctum Spa, where a specially curated promotion focuses on rest and renewal. Available from 3 to 5 April 2026, the experience features a 90-minute massage designed to ease tension and promote deep relaxation, complemented by a complimentary eye treatment. The offering is priced at RM468+ per person.

Set within a tranquil environment defined by soft lighting and a calming ambience, Sanctum Spa provides an ideal escape from the pace of daily life. Skilled therapists work to relieve muscle fatigue and restore balance, while the added eye enhancement offers a thoughtful finishing touch. The experience leaves guests feeling refreshed and revitalised, ready to continue their Easter celebrations.

Whether gathering for a festive Easter lunch, enjoying family-friendly activities, or taking time to unwind with a restorative spa treatment, EQ presents a seamless blend of flavour, comfort and indulgence. This Easter, guests are invited to slow down, enjoy good company, and celebrate the season in the heart of the city.
